

Unique Batik is a Fair Trade wholesaler of adventure ready bags, clothes and other charmed objects. At Unique Batik, we think life should be chocked full of adventures, nifty coincidences, accidental conversations and daily discoveries. Not getting enough? Spread the word about Fair Trade by supporting our artisans.

Then...venture forth with good karma on your body! Unique Batik. Get your Fair Trade on.

Pakistan: Embedded in these items is a blast of good energy from Pakistan where we work with women who are housebound due to tribal and political unrest. For them, the work they create is like homing pigeons—they go out into the universe. Coming back in its place is a living wage and a sense of participation in the world.

Thailand: These pieces are created by hand in Thailand, where we work with ethnic minorities, refugees and uneducated farm workers. The fact is, wearing, displaying or owning this piece makes something a little better in the world.

Ghana: Hand made by our creative friend in Ghana where everyone seems to have an eye for vivid color and ideas for recycling used materials into groovy things. Age-old batik processes, recycled glass, & handmade brass details are just a few ways our items from Ghana are loaded with good vibes.

Guatemala: The Guatemala we love is a place of vibrant individuality, vivid colors, and relentless creativity. With timeless leather work, inventive use of recycled materials and ancient weaving techniques, these pieces are pretty much guaranteed to bring you surprise encounters and worthwhile coincidences.

Unique Batik is a Fair Trade wholesaler of adventure ready bags, clothes and other charmed objects. At Unique Batik, we think life should be chocked full of adventures, nifty coincidences, accidental conversations and daily discoveries. Not getting enough? Spread the word about Fair Trade by supporting our artisans.

Then...venture forth with good karma on your body! Unique Batik. Get your Fair Trade on.

Pakistan: Embedded in these items is a blast of good energy from Pakistan where we work with women who are housebound due to tribal and political unrest. For them, the work they create is like homing pigeons—they go out into the universe. Coming back in its place is a living wage and a sense of participation in the world.

Thailand: These pieces are created by hand in Thailand, where we work with ethnic minorities, refugees and uneducated farm workers. The fact is, wearing, displaying or owning this piece makes something a little better in the world.

Ghana: Hand made by our creative friend in Ghana where everyone seems to have an eye for vivid color and ideas for recycling used materials into groovy things. Age-old batik processes, recycled glass, & handmade brass details are just a few ways our items from Ghana are loaded with good vibes.

Guatemala: The Guatemala we love is a place of vibrant individuality, vivid colors, and relentless creativity. With timeless leather work, inventive use of recycled materials and ancient weaving techniques, these pieces are pretty much guaranteed to bring you surprise encounters and worthwhile coincidences.

www.uniquebatik.us

www.uniquebatik.us

