

String Dolls appeared in the markets of Thailand in 2004 and it wasn't long before a whole cottage industry had sprung up around these amazing creations. What's so amazing about them? Every doll is hand-made from one piece of string (accessories are added later) and yet is durable enough to be used as a keychain, bag charm, or however you see fit. There are over 100 different String Doll Gang characters, each one with its own special, good-luck power. Fair Trade and made by one unique individual for another!

String Dolls appeared in the markets of Thailand in 2004 and it wasn't long before a whole cottage industry had sprung up around these amazing creations. What's so amazing about them? Every doll is hand-made from one piece of string (accessories are added later) and yet is durable enough to be used as a keychain, bag charm, or however you see fit. There are over 100 different String Doll Gang characters, each one with its own special, good-luck power. Fair Trade and made by one unique individual for another!

